Hello Chiedza,

Thank you again for your time earlier this week. My apologies for the delay in getting you this email. In going back over my information, I realized that I actually did not have the document I referenced in our conversation. Accordingly, I needed to track it down for you.

The first document is the initial analysis completed by the DFW employee; this can be a good starting point to understand the issues that DFW had flagged. Additionally, I have attached a few documents that we received from an outside organization. I offer this for awareness; we can certainly discuss after you have had a chance to review.

It was nice meeting you on Tuesday and looking forward to working with you.

Respectfully,
Franklin
